

Winifred Marilyn Wrasman

Published in St. Petersburg Times on January 5, 2011

http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/sptimes/obituary.aspx?n=winifred-wrasman&pid=147607876&eid=sp\_shareobit

WRASMAN, Winifred Marilyn died on Saturday, Jan. 1, 2011, at home in Clearwater. She is survived by husband Jim Wrasman of Clearwater; daughter Mary Wrasman and her husband Alex Hurder of Murfreesboro, TN; daughter Jeanne Wrasman Reynolds and her husband Richard Reynolds of Clearwater; grandchildren Michael Hurder of Brooklyn, NY, Eileen Reynolds of NYC, Jim Hurder of Nashville, TN, Jocelyn Reynolds of Clearwater, and her beloved nephew, nieces, and friends. Marilyn was born in Brooklyn on July 26, 1924. Her family moved to Rockville Centre, NY, where she lived until 1971, when she moved to Clearwater. She attended St. Agnes School in Rockville Centre, NY, received her BA from Good Counsel College in White Plains, NY, and her MA from Columbia University in NYC. Marilyn was an award-winning educator in NY and Pinellas County public schools. She retired from Dixie Hollins High School. A funeral Mass will be held Thursday, Jan. 20, at 11 am at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Clearwater. In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations to Suncoast Hospice, 5771 Roosevelt Blvd. Clearwater, FL 33760.

From 60th Anniversary Celebration

